

KARLA GEROME, EXECUTIVE OF EDUCATION

Karla has been quilting nearly her entire life. She learned the craft from her mother at a young age and quickly developed a passion for both quilting and teaching others.

Karla spent time working and teaching at Mormon Handicraft before joining Grace Company, founded by her brother Jim Bagley. For more than 40 years, she has taught quilters of all skill levels, sharing her knowledge of everything from traditional piecing and hand quilting to modern machine quilting and automation.

As the driving force behind Grace Company's education programs, Karla has helped thousands of quilters grow their skills through in-person classes, online courses and video instruction. She is the creator of popular educational series such as Tuesdays With Grace and Quilter's Playground.

Karla's greatest passion is helping quilters gain confidence, whether they are making their very first quilt or mastering advanced quilting techniques. When she's not teaching, she loves designing quilt patterns and quilting designs that inspire creativity in quilters everywhere.

JANNA MATTHEWS, SALES MANAGER

Janna Mathews is the Assistant Sales Manager with the Grace Company. She joined the company a little over a year ago as an Account Executive and since being promoted she has had the opportunity to work with both customers and dealers across the country.

She has a great client and retail background and is committed to taking care of each person she is working with.

Although not a dedicated quilter herself, she comes from a long line of quilters and has several UFO's she would love to get finished. When she is not at work Janna is an avid baker and loves bringing in tasty treats to share. Janna can't wait to talk to you more about all the great ways The Grace Company can help with your quilting experience.
